About the Donors

3. Information about our donors is set out below.

The Audent Chambers Bursary	The Audent Chambers Bursary was set up in 2026 by Audent Chambers LLC to support candidates who have a stated intention to practise community law in their bar examinations. It is hoped that the recipients of this bursary will seek to contribute meaningfully to serving the underprivileged and to advocate for those in need.
The Chester Toh Bursary	The Chester Toh Bursary was established in 2025 by one of his former trainees, to honour her former Supervising Solicitor for his kindness, guidance and support through the years. The bursary is awarded to financially disadvantaged candidates in the hope that they will contribute meaningfully to the profession in the future.
The Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis Bursary	The Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis Bursary was established in 2025 by Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis’s lawyers who teach at the Part B Course, and whose contributions are matched by Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis. The need-based bursary is awarded to candidates who require financial support to undertake the Part B Course and Examinations.

The Jeffrey Chan Wah Teck and Family Bursary	The Jeffrey Chan Wah Teck and Family bursary was established in 2025 by the family of Mr Jeffrey Chan Wah Teck SC. This bursary is awarded to financially disadvantaged candidates, with the hope that they will nurture and support other aspiring lawyers in the future.
The Justice, Mercy and Humility Bursary	The Justice, Mercy, Humility Bursary was established in 2026 by Yeong Zee Kin and Audrey Chiang Ju Hua to support aspiring members of the legal profession in their bar examinations. This Bursary is named after the theme verse of the Varsity Christian Fellowship where they met when they were in law school. The Donors hope to encourage these values in each recipient.
The OTP Law Corporation Bursary	The OTP Law Corporation Bursary was established in 2025 through the generous support of OTP Law Corporation. Reflecting the firm's commitment to nurturing the next generation of lawyers, the bursary is awarded to candidates who require financial assistance to undertake the Part B Course and Examinations, with the aim of enabling deserving individuals to enter the profession and contribute positively to the legal community.
The Rev Law & Friends Bursary	The Rev Law & Friends bursary was set up to support financially disadvantaged Part B candidates in the Singapore Bar examinations. It is hoped that this support will inspire aspiring members of the legal profession to do the best they can in their legal journeys, and to seek justice, love mercy, and to be meaningful contributors to the legal profession in Singapore.

- 10. Successful awardees will be notified via email, by 21 February 2027. Further information will be provided to successful awardees via email.
- 11. Please note that the Institute administers the bursary, and the quantum disbursed per year is at the Institute’s sole discretion. The Institute’s decisions on the award of bursaries are not subject to appeal.

Section C

FAQ – For Applicants

12. Will I be guaranteed to be granted a bursary?

Awards of bursaries are not guaranteed. The quantum disbursed per year is at the Institute's sole discretion.

13. I understand that apart from demonstrating a gross monthly household per capita income of less than SGD $2,700, candidates who can demonstrate a comparable level of financial need will also be considered. What does it mean to “demonstrate a comparable level of financial need”?

Candidates who can demonstrate circumstances equivalent to the gross monthly household per capita income of less than SGD 2,700 may be considered for the bursary. The Institute will review each application based on its facts and circumstances before deciding on whether to award a bursary. Any such decision is non-appealable.

14. I did not receive the bursary / I did not meet some of the eligibility requirements. Can I appeal this decision?

No. There is no review or appeal available for the Institute's decision. Please note that the Institute administers the bursary, and the quantum disbursed per year is at the Institute's sole discretion.

15. I did not receive the bursary. Can I ask for reasons why I did not receive the bursary?

No. There is no review or appeal available for the Institute's decision. Please note that the Institute administers the bursary, and the quantum disbursed per year is at the Institute's sole discretion.

16. I note that I must register or apply for the Part B Course and Examinations prior to applying for the Bursaries Fund. However, I am currently unable to make payment for the Part B Course and Examinations. What should I do?

For candidates who are unable to make payment for the Part B Course and Examinations, such candidates should first apply for the Bursaries Fund.

Candidates should then attach a screenshot of the Bursaries Fund acknowledgement email in lieu of the “Screenshot of payment” attachment for the Part B Application Form.

17. I have been awarded the bursary. However, I failed the Part B Examinations. Can I apply for another bursary for the retaker fee?

No. Applicants for the Bursaries Fund must not have previously attempted the Part B Examinations.

18. I have applied for permanent residency. However, I am not currently a permanent resident. Can I apply for the Bursaries Fund?

No. Candidates must be Singapore citizens or Singapore permanent residents.
