About the Bursary

The Singapore Institute of Legal Education (SILE)'s Part B Donated Bursaries Fund is established from the generous donations from members of the legal fraternity, who wish to assist financially disadvantaged candidates for the Singapore Bar with their Part B Course and Examinations Fees.

SILE administers the bursary. The quantum disbursed per year is at SILE's sole discretion, depending on the financial needs of the applicant and whether the requisite eligibility criteria is met. All decisions by SILE are final. For bursary applications, kindly scan the QR code, or visit our webpage at <http://sile.embark.com/apply/bursary>.

Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

Please note that to apply and qualify for the bursary, the following conditions must be met:

1. Candidates should have successfully passed Part A by their second attempt (if applicable), and must be registered for the Part B Course and Examinations.
2. Candidates must not have previously attempted the Part B Examinations.
3. Candidates must be Singapore citizens or Singapore permanent residents.
4. Candidates should have a gross monthly household per capita income (PCI) of less than SGD $2,700.* Alternatively, candidates who can demonstrate a comparable level of financial need will also be considered.
5. Candidates must not require any exemption from the requirements to be recognised as a qualified person.

Per Capita Income (PCI) is calculated by dividing the total gross income of all household members by the number of individuals in the household*

Application

Candidates applying for the bursary must submit the following documents and information to SILE:

1. A copy of the candidate's NRIC;
2. A copy of the candidate's degree certificate and academic transcript;
3. A personal statement explaining why the candidate has chosen to pursue a career in law, outlining their professional goals and aspirations;
4. A statement detailing why financial assistance is required and proof of gross monthly household per capita income;
5. Part A Examinations results (if applicable); and
6. Any facts that may affect the candidate's suitability to practise as a Lawyer (Non-Practitioner) or as an Advocate and Solicitor in Singapore, or as a legal practitioner (by whatever name called) in any other jurisdiction.

About our donors

The Audent Chambers Bursary

The Audent Chambers Bursary was set up in 2026 by Audent Chambers LLC to support candidates who have a stated intention to practise community law in their bar examinations. It is hoped that the recipients of this bursary will seek to contribute meaningfully to serving the underprivileged and to advocate for those in need.

The Chester Toh Bursary

The Chester Toh Bursary was established in 2025 by one of his former trainees, to honour her former Supervising Solicitor for his kindness, guidance and support through the years. This bursary is awarded to financially disadvantaged candidates in the hope that they will contribute meaningfully to the profession in the future.

The Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis Bursary

The Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis Bursary was established in 2025 by Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis's lawyers who teach at the Part B Course, and whose contributions are matched by Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer Prolegis. The need-based bursary is awarded to candidates who require financial support to undertake the Part B Course and Examinations.

About our donors

The Jeffrey Chan Wah Teck and Family Bursary

The Jeffrey Chan Wah Teck and Family Bursary was established in 2025 by the family of Mr Jeffrey Chan Wah Teck SC. This bursary is awarded to financially disadvantaged candidates, with the hope that they will nurture and support other aspiring lawyers in the future.

The Justice, Mercy and Humility Bursary

The Justice, Mercy, Humility Bursary was established in 2026 by Yeong Zee Kin and Audrey Chiang Ju Hua to support aspiring members of the legal profession in their bar examinations. This Bursary is named after the theme verse of the Varsity Christian Fellowship where they met when they were in law school. The Donors hope to encourage these values in each recipient.

The OTP Law Corporation Bursary

The OTP Law Corporation Bursary was established in 2025 through the generous support of OTP Law Corporation. Reflecting the firm's commitment to nurturing the next generation of lawyers, the bursary is awarded to candidates who require financial assistance to undertake the Part B Course and Examinations, with the aim of enabling deserving individuals to enter the profession and contribute positively to the legal community.

About our donors

The Rev Law & Friends Bursary

The RevLaw & Friends bursary was set up to support financially disadvantaged Part B candidates in the Singapore Bar examinations. It is hoped that this support will inspire aspiring members of the legal profession to do the best they can in their legal journeys, and to seek justice, love mercy, and to be meaningful contributors to the legal profession in Singapore.
